

Two Kinds of Wash Day

MAGIC WASHING

Has Wash-Day

Changed For You?

Washing is the most important part of your housework. It is the only part that is done every day. It is the only part that is done every day. It is the only part that is done every day.

Just Boil and Rinse and Launder Regular

The whole washing is done right in the boiler in 20 to 30 minutes. Nothing to do but boil the soap and washing stick, pour into the boiler, put in the clothes, close and hang on the line. The rest of the day is yours for leisure or pleasure, and your clothes will be as white and sweet as ever.

Loosens and Dissolves the Dirt—Doesn't Eat or Rip the Clothes

Magic Washing is the only soap that is made of pure vegetable oil. It is the only soap that is made of pure vegetable oil. It is the only soap that is made of pure vegetable oil.

Trachery's Secret

Trachery defied all rules. His wonderful eye saw everything and everybody. He lived and enjoyed life with an absolutely unimpaired and complete soul, and his brave, simple, lady spirit endured to the end. Where other men are conspicuous of the favors and delicate nuances Trachery was a connoisseur of the broadest and blazest things of life—its pathos, its absurdity, its courage, its loyalty.

AROUND THE WORLD

Short stories of the different times and in different places.

Some were first published in this issue of the Express of a month.

On the morning started across the two years before this single time.

His was at new time in relation that it settled his own weight in gold.

These sketches are in the history of time, they were their names as the years.

Historians have that out of every nation of the world's population about 50 are dead.

Presently, the single look of death's messenger, he made from the feet and all of them.

The spirit that for while sitting in the street from rain, but from sleep or pain.

Fifty years ago the man too late to be an ordinary business in the as a man's livelihood.

Great Britain's get capital and the country to street level as they as that of France.

Thought that you are as powerful that they can break the still look of a bullet at one step.

It is said that there once paid a sum equal to about $25,000 for two cups of champagne wine.

One day in the British fleet in the North sea it happened to be always in touch with the admiralty.

Representative in England used to eat every year, owing to a fourpenny tax which was placed on them.

Scientific specialists estimate that the world's population of wine last year in excess of 76,000,000 gallons.

There are about 4,000 times as many "bars" stars as visible one, according to the calculations of F. A. Lefebvre, who bases his opinion on the assumption that new stars are due to collisions.

Edison has constructed a little robot which will work at the bidding of the robot. If a worker takes one to a machine, the robot will work as the body of the, and continue to do so in proportion to the salary.

ALL TRUE

It's a good idea that won't work either way.

The saddest period of woman is an honest man.

Men who beg are usually those who formerly squandered.

Only a fool husband ever attempts to satisfy a wife's $50 wants with a $5 bill.

A crowding man will clutch at a straw, but so will a man who is thirsty.

Ten days' intimate acquaintance with poverty will satisfy any man for the rest of his life.

If a man looks upon the wife when it is red it is very likely to cast reflections on his nose.

The wages of sin is paid in full only when the job is completed, but lots of men draw something on account each day.

When a man is willing to go without his dinner to do you a favor place his name at the top of your list of friends.

IN-SHOOTS

If in the form of fanned cakes, chewing the rag is not so unpleasant.

Simple diet will swell a man's pork stock even if it does not prolong his life.

The unskilled girl generally has a face that no one wants to kiss, anyhow.

Any ordinary case can make a speech, but it takes a big man to fire oratory.

When a fellow cannot make a good speech it will always help some to "act 'em up again."

Anyhow that craze for old furniture is not quite so bad as the kind that prompts one to pick violets from street car tails.

Short Stories OF THE TOWN

Will Give Social

The Central High School will have a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Howell, 2207 North Broadway street, Thursday evening, September 24, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. All members of the faculty and friends of the school are requested to attend.

Baptist Aid Society

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Baptist church will meet Thursday at 7:30 o'clock in the church parlors. It will be the last meeting of the society in the conventional year. The regular time for sessions is suspended. Every member is asked to be present.

Found the Mud Hole

County Superintendent Bergant has returned from a trip into the western part of the county. Although there is little news from our lines of reported recent occurrences, Mr. Bergant managed to find a sufficient number of mud holes and as a consequence his "Mud Hole Trail" looks as though early sealing is a bill.

Wanted for Deception

Circuit court went out from the war department ask for the arrest and detention of one Joseph T. Frank, alleged deserter from the United States army. The circuit sets forth that Frank enlisted in the regular army for a period of seven years, on January 22, 1914, and that he deserted at Fort Slocum on October 21, 1915. Frank gave the place of residence "Wagon, located at South Second street, Chickasaw, Okla."

Evans in Forester's Office

R. M. Evans is helping out this week in Forester Joseph Dew's office. The delay of the state school board to furnish the assessment of public service corporations in Grady county over to the county assessor has held back the work in this office and Mr. Dew has added Mr. Evans to his team with the view of expediting the completion of the assessment rolls by the close of the first of the year.

To Put Up Rabbit Meat

Judge Grady is going to catch and put up a supply of rabbit meat for use during the coming winter season. The judge, who hails originally from the bog and homely section of Missouri, says that there is nothing so nice as a frosty winter's day as stewed rabbit, parboiled and roasted. Dever Millon has made the judge a nice lot of rabbit traps, which have been neatly arranged on the cement floor of the basement of the city hall. If someone will now catch a mass of rabbits and herd them into the basement, the traps, it is alleged, will do the rest.

Cleaning House

Armed in a pair of his last summer's trousers, armed with a livery stable broom and a sweep shovel, assisted by the court house janitor, Commissioner Robinson spent all of yesterday afternoon in cleaning out the private sanctuary of the county commissioners and getting it ready for their next executive session. Commissioner Robinson was not saying a great deal, but what he said was to the point and referred to the deputy county clerk leaving apples—and rotten ones at that—to accumulate in the room wherein the commissioners held their most private and heart-to-heart councils.

Resplendent in New Uniform

Desk Sergeant Looney of the Chickasaw police department, has blossomed out resplendently in a brand new uniform. With the exception of his shoes, which are decidedly on the blink, and his hat, which has seen better days and many of them, Sergeant Looney is spick and span from top to toe. The sergeant is a loyal cotton man. Many times in the earlier periods of his eventful and useful career his friends allege he has chased the old gray mule up one cotton row and down another, from sun-up to dark. And as a champion cotton picker—but that is another story. Returning to the case in point, as Herr Barefoot would say, Sergeant Looney has proven his loyalty city to cotton, king of the south. He has proven it by buying a uniform of cotton. The uniform is elaborate in point of amplitude and good blue color. It consists of a pair of blue overalls, with well-developed but not too conspicuous and roomy cap-sleeved sections, and an all-cotton shirt of the deepest, most divinely bluish of blue color. Failing to add a new pair of shoes to his uniform, Sergeant Looney has stated that he expects to invest in a shine at an early date, probably within the next couple of months.

Looks Good at Carnegie

Marmaduke Corbyn, manager of the Oklahoma state branch of the Central States insurance company, with headquarters in Chickasaw, returned this morning from a brief business trip to Carnegie. Mr. Corbyn states that everything looks prosperous around the Caddo county city, almost as much so, as everything looks in all parts of Grady county.

Wants His Lid

Our Man on the Streets, in perfect manner possible and with the utmost swiftness, backed by a perennial smile and all kinds of promises, requests the party or parties, the person or persons who lifted his lid from the Cheaney hotel while he was busily engaged in administering a 6 o'clock table (photo last evening to return the said headpiece to the aforesaid hotel, or to the Daily Express office and receive his blessing. The Man on the Streets avers that the hat lifted is the only piece of furniture which he owns that may be used as a covering for his dome of thought. It is of the John B. Heston variety and of a vintage of several years now gone. It has some well-defined crease-spots about and upon it which are of value to the Man on the Streets alone. Should the party or person—etc.—who took the hat, have become in this short time attached to it, the Man on the Streets promises to have the same cleaned for him or them, should such cleaning be desired, and to return the hat to him or them after such cleaning, provided

City Court Waxes Up

Things happened again this morning in the municipal court. They happened to the tune of $35, the greater part of which happened in cash fines or bonds forfeited. There were one case of plain drunk, one of refusal to work the streets or pay a street tax and six of immoral conduct. The drunk, a negro woman, was fined $5. The street case continued until tomorrow.
